

I'm not good at Japanese... Do I have a chance to work in Japan?

When should I start job-hunting?

I don't know how to search for jobs...

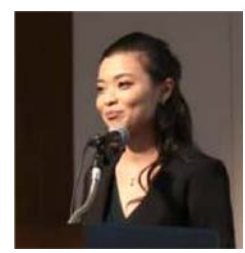

What do companies value the most when recruiting?

Strategy for a Successful Job Search

Career Seminar for International Students

Only 35% of international students find a job in Japan... However, if you learn about the employment and recruitment culture of Japanese companies and approach job-hunting correctly, you will definitely get a job offer in Japan!
